

IBM Datacap 9.0.1: Mobile

F250 Course Abstract

Course description

This course provides an introduction to Datacap Mobile client. It shows how to capture images using Datacap Mobile and work with batches and fields. It also shows how to read barcodes, OCR, and save location.

Duration

2.0 hours

Delivery Method

Web Based Training (WBT)

Audience

- Anyone who needs to know about the IBM Datacap Mobile client.

Prerequisites

- Familiarity with data capture concepts

Course Objectives

Upon completion of this course, participants learn how to:

- Capture images using Datacap Mobile
- Work with batches and fields
- Read barcodes, OCR, and save location

Topics

Introduction to Datacap Mobile

Datacap Mobile Capture and other mobile features
Mobile Capture use cases
IBM Datacap Mobile app
Datacap Mobile Deployment options
Server-side configuration for Datacap Mobile
Connect Mobile application to Datacap
Log in to Datacap Mobile application
Capture images with the camera and edit images manually

Work with batches and fields

Process and upload images to the Datacap server
Settings available to the Datacap Mobile app
Batch view in the Datacap Mobile app

Work with local document batches

Fields view in Datacap Mobile app

Barcode reading and OCR recognition

Configure geocoding and location

Work with recognition languages

Datacap Mobile Architecture and SDK (optional)

Datacap Mobile Three Tier architecture with remote access

Datacap Mobile application SDK and prerequisites

Datacap SDK features and common tasks

New features for Datacap Mobile in Version 9.0.0.3

New features for Datacap Mobile in Version 9.0.1